God protects our hearts, but we must stay away from evil. We need to recognize when we have made a mistake and then say sorry to God and the people we've hurt.

Put a cross if incorrect or tick box if statement is true

- We must stay away from evil.....
- We don't need to recognize our mistakes.....
- We don't need to say sorry for wrong things we've done.....

The breast-plate also protects us by helping us to obey God. We need to know what God wants us to do and then do these things.
